FISHY FACTS

- ★ A dogfish is a type of shark.
- ★ A dogfish baby is called a "pup."
- ★ It is the shark's gregarious nature, occurring in 'packs' of hundreds or thousands of individuals that explains where the 'dogfish' comes from in their common name.
- ★ Some researchers have estimated the life expectancy of this shark to be 40 years.
- ★ In Europe, if you order "fish & chips," you will probably be eating spiny dogfish.
- ★ A dogfish's two dorsal spines are mildly venomous.
